

THE MONOLOGUE PODCAST

SEASON 3 EPISODE THEMES

EPISODE 1 IT'S GETTING HOT IN HERE

Submission deadline: Monday, Feb 14

However you view the Climate Crisis, we're on the precipice of colossal change. But from great adversity comes great creativity. From an ode to Mother Nature to an omen of what's to come, tell us your tale as the temperature rises.

EPISODE 2 RHYME TIME

Submission deadline: Monday, April 11

This theme is not a topic but a tool. Show us how your love for language knows no bounds by using the power of poetry to tell a story. From perfect rhyme to spoken word, express yourself — that's what the art of rhyme is all about!

EPISODE 3 CROSSING THE LINE

Submission deadline: Monday, June 6

What happens when things go too far? When boundaries are pushed and perpetrators perpetuate? It can feel like not a day goes by without reading of wrongdoings in the workplace or foul play behind closed doors, but when something or someone is pushed — or pulled — beyond what is acceptable, we have to ask ourselves, did they want to drink the tea?

EPISODE 4 THE TOURIST

Submission deadline: Monday, August 8

From far off tales in foreign lands to having tourists far too close to home, tourism is all around us. Does the word spark joy or would you Marie Kondo it away if you could? Business or pleasure, take us on an unforgettable tour through places — or people — unknown.

EPISODE 5 FOR THE LOVE OF MUSIC!

Submission deadline: Monday, Oct 10

Music makes the world go round. Melodies, song lyrics, and soundtracks can ignite our highest highs and soothe our lowest lows. From the beat of our heart to the way bass can shake bones. "If music be the food of love, play on" and sing it from the rooftop!

EPISODE 6 BOTTOMS UP

Submission deadline: Monday, November 28

A celebratory toast, a wild rave, the lubricant for a night of passion, or a means to drink into oblivion. Love it or loathe it, alcohol, at this festive time of year, is all around. It makes for a great story, but can be a slippery slope. Naughty or nice, let's raise a glass. Cheers!
